English Language

English as a Foreign Language

London Camden College offers a wide range of English language courses throughout the year to suit students of all abilities and ages.

General English

We offer general English language courses to students who wish to improve their skills in reading, writing, speaking and listening. Courses are offered at different levels ranging from Beginners to Advanced. Students are assessed on admission and assigned to a suitable level. As they make progress, however, they are able to move on to a higher level.

Level 1 - Beginner's English

Level 1 will give you the confidence to ask for information to meet everyday needs in a limited range of social and work settings, such as asking for directions, understanding basic instructions, etc.

Level 2 -Elementary English

Level 2 will enable you to perform a range of familiar and non-routine tasks in everyday social and work contexts. After completion of this level, you will be able to use a limited range of language skills to deal with various situations and topics, such as giving opinions on everyday matters.

Level 3 -Intermediate English

Level 3 will enable you to use the English language in a variety of contexts with a degree of autonomy. You will learn to select and use language appropriately in new situations such as persuading people, expressing opinions, arguing a case, etc.

Level 4 -Advanced English

Level 4 will enable you to use the English language fluently and accurately. Your better understanding of its subtleties will enable you to use complex language in both professional and cultural contexts.

Examination Preparation Courses

Our examination preparation courses are specially designed to prepare students for internationally recognised English examinations such as Cambridge First Certificate, Pitman, RSA, and the IELTS.

Our teaching staffs are well qualified, friendly and experienced in teaching English as a Foreign Language. We give special emphasis to teaching in small class sizes so that each student receives personal attention.

For further information, please contact the college reception or the Head of Department of English.

General Information

Admission Guidelines

All applicants must complete the application form, which can be downloaded from our web site. Please return the form to the College Admissions Office with the following:

1. Two passport-sized photographs
2. Photocopies of qualifications (if in a language other than English, please provide English translations certified by a relevant authority)
3. Evidence of work experience, where applicable.
4. Course fees
5. Proof of identity (your passport or full driving licence)

If your qualifications match the entry requirements for your proposed course, the college will send you an acceptance letter detailing:

The Course for which the application was made, Course fees, the date by which it must be paid, The Date of course commencement and maintenance funds required for the duration of the course for the students applying from the abroad.

For overseas students, the acceptance letter may be used to process foreign exchange through central banks.

On receipt of tuition fees, the college will issue a Letter of Enrolment confirming reservation of a place in the course. Payments may be made either by banker's draft or by bank transfer directly into the college account.

Bank Name:	HSBC
Account Name:	London Camden College

IBAN:	GB43MIDL40063081774085
BIC:	MIDLGB142R
Bank Address:	15 The Mall Stratford London E15 1XL

Please ensure that you put your personal details on the draft/postal order or bank remittance. Overseas students will need the Letter of Enrolment to apply to the British High Commission/Embassy for a student visa. We will send you general information regarding visa applications along with the enrolment form.

Visa Application

Once a place has been reserved in the course, students requiring entry clearance should visit the British Embassy/High Commission in person. The following documents should accompany the visa application:

1. Letter of Enrolment issued by the College
2. Passport
3. Documents showing your ability to pay for the cost of your course and stay in the UK, such as bank statements, pay slips, letter from your employer, etc
4. If you are sponsored, you will need a letter confirming that your sponsor will meet the cost of your course and stay in the UK, and documents showing that your sponsor has undertaken to pay for these.
5. Evidence of accommodation booking
6. Proof of educational qualifications and training completed
7. Letter from your employer if you are working
8. Proof of the applicant's intention and financial means to return back to his/her home country on completion of the course.

Further information regarding visa applications can be obtained from your nearest British Embassy/High Commission or Consular Office.

Important Information for Overseas Students

On Arrival in the UK

Immigration authorities often require students to show evidence of enrolment at the College, and to provide proof of ability to pay fees and living expenses for a full academic year before allowing entry to the UK.

You will need to have British currency and traveller's cheques available, and bring enough money to cover your immediate expenses in the UK, including customs charges, rail fares and any emergency expenses.

Airport Reception Service

Students arriving in the UK for the first time may wish to be met by a college representative at the airport. London Camden College can arrange an airport reception service from Gatwick and Heathrow airports. Heathrow airport is about 19 miles from the college, while Gatwick airport about 39 miles. A small charge of £75 for Heathrow airport and £95 for Gatwick airport is payable. Please let the college know in advance if you require this service.

Accommodation

The college can arrange accommodation to suit your needs. Accommodation can be arranged in either single or shared rooms with private landlords, at your request. The rent for economy accommodation is likely to be approximately £75-£100 per week. If you would like us to arrange accommodation, please write to the College at least 4 weeks in advance of your arrival in the UK and forward £400 as accommodation deposit.

Healthcare

Overseas students enrolled in courses of six months' duration or more are entitled to free healthcare from the National Health Service. Spouses and children under the age of sixteen are also entitled to NHS treatment. Students should register with a local NHS General Practitioner to receive free treatment in NHS hospitals.

Career Advice

London Camden College offers students advice on course choice and future careers. Career guidance can also be provided by your head of department or specialist recruitment agency working on behalf of LCC.

Employment for Overseas Students

Full-time students are allowed to work part-time up to a maximum of 20 hours a week during term time, and full-time during vacations. LCC can assist students in finding suitable part-time employment.

Bank Account

Overseas students enrolled in courses of one year duration or more are eligible to open a personal bank account in the UK. You must provide photo ID (passport or full driving licence) and proof of address in the UK in the form of a utility bill, tenancy agreement or council tax letter. Students are advised to bring bank statements or an official bank letter from their home country.

Free English Language Classes.

Full-time students experiencing difficulties with English, are encouraged to attend English language classes free of charge whilst continuing on with their main course of studies.

Student Library and Computer Facilities

London Camden College stocks recommended course texts and subscribes to journals and magazines of interest to students. Students are able to borrow books for a day for study on the college premises. In addition, the college has a state-of-the-art computer library where students can access online information.

Visa Extension Services

Overseas students requiring extension of their visa while studying at the college may request that the college administration submit their application to the home office on their behalf. This request must be accompanied by the appropriate visa extension fees.

Travelling and Living in London

Getting around London is easy with the London Underground, buses and trains. You may find the cost of living in London rather expensive. Please make appropriate financial arrangements for the duration of your study in London. The weather in London is variable and can be rather cold in winter. You should bring some warm clothes with you.

For further information about living and studying in London, please contact your local British Council office, or visit their web site at <http://www.britishcouncil.org>.

College Location

London Camden College (LCC) is located in the heart of London. London Camden College is minutes away from the city, busy Camden market and many other attractions with excellent transport links from all parts of London.

College Rules and Regulations

Gross Misconduct

Any behaviour involving violence, or threat of violence, deliberate damage to property, disruptive behaviour, bullying, harassment, intimidation, dishonesty (including cheating and theft), or any illegal activity will be treated as 'gross misconduct'. These are only examples and not a complete list of the types of behaviour which the College may treat as 'gross misconduct'. Anyone found guilty of gross misconduct will be suspended or expelled from the College. A thorough investigation will be conducted in every case and the principal's decision will be communicated to the student, subject to the right of appeal.

Courses and fees

1. Students must pay course fees in full before commencement of the course, unless otherwise arranged with the College.
2. Students are required to register with professional bodies and pay the appropriate registration and examination fees. Examination fees are not be refundable under any circumstances.
3. The College will not refund any tuition fees once classes have commenced. If a student decides to cancel the course before commencement, he/she must advise the College at least 4 weeks prior to course commencement. An administrative charge of £125 will be deducted from the fees and the balance amount will be refunded.
4. The College reserves the right to cancel a course without prior notice if there are insufficient student numbers or for any other reason. In that event, any full fees paid in advance will be refunded, or alternatively students will be given the opportunity to transfer to another course if the student so wishes and places are available.
5. The College requires all fees to be paid on time. Failure to do so may result in suspension, not being allowed to sit college examinations or the withholding of results.
6. Unless prior arrangements have been made, overseas students must pay tuitions fees before course commencement. Home students and overseas students who have spent at least one year as a student with the College may pay their fees in two equal installments, provided a) a surcharge of 10% is paid on the full fee with the first installment and b) the second installment is paid at the commencement of the second term.
7. The College reserves the right to review its fees at any time.

Withdrawal from a course

If you wish to withdraw from a course for whatever reason, then:

1. Withdrawals must be made in writing and will only apply from the date it is received by the College administration.
2. For withdrawals received more than four weeks before course commencement, an administrative charge of £125 will be deducted from the deposit and any balance refunded.

3. For withdrawals received less than four weeks before course commencement, no deposit will be refunded. Where withdrawals are received after the course commencement date, for whatever reason, no refund will be given. In addition, any outstanding fees will be required to be paid in full.
4. Overseas students should note that where the College has sent letter(s) to the Home Office to support a student visa application, the College must notify the Home Office of any withdrawals from the course. Once the student has obtained a visa, any fees or deposits paid by the student to the college are non-refundable.
5. For students who are unsuccessful in obtaining a student visa, a full refund (less the £125 non-refundable administrative charge) will be granted on receipt of a written request for a refund together with the original College receipt (Photocopies or fax are not accepted), original enrolment letter issued by LCC, an original copy of the official visa refusal letter issued by the relevant British High Commission/Embassy, and a copy of the student's passport showing both photograph and signature.

Refunds under this section should preferably be submitted before the commencement date of the course, otherwise within the first four weeks of class commencement at the very latest. Please allow a minimum of three weeks to process refunds.
